EXPLANATORY NOTES TO THE PROXY FORM

1. As a member of the Company you are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the Company. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes. References to attendance in this proxy must be considered in accordance with Covid-19 and the restrictions of attendance as set out in the Notice of meeting.
2. Appointment of a proxy does not preclude you from attending the meeting and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the meeting in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
3. A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. To appoint as your proxy a person other than the Chairman of the meeting, insert their full name in the box. If you sign and return this proxy form with no name inserted in the box, the Chairman of the meeting will be deemed to be your proxy. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chairman, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the meeting and are aware of your voting intentions. Please note that this AGM will be held as a closed meeting and therefore you should appoint the Chairman of the meeting as your proxy.
4. You may appoint more than one proxy provided each proxy is appointed to exercise rights attached to different shares. You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to any one share. To appoint more than one proxy please contact the registrars of the Company, Share Registrars Limited, on 01252 821 390.
5. To direct your proxy how to vote on the resolutions delete the appropriate responses for each resolution as appropriate. To abstain from voting on a resolution, delete the "For" and "Against" responses and leave the relevant "Vote withheld" response clear and unmarked. A vote withheld is not a vote in law, which means that the vote will not be counted in the calculation of votes for or against the resolution.

If no voting indication is given, your proxy will vote or abstain from voting at his or her discretion. Your proxy will vote (or abstain from voting) as he or she thinks fit in relation to any other matter which is put before the meeting.

Seniority is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the Company's register of members in respect of the joint holding (the first-named being the most senior).
